

1 DELEGATE BOYCE: That is absolutely correct, sir.

2 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Raley.

3 DELEGATE RALEY: All right.

4 One other question and then I will sit down.

5 You say here in your Minority Report to permit
6 the Governor to reorganize the executive department without 7 waiting for the initiative on the part of the legislature.

8 I don't understand how you say that or how you
9 carry that out.

10 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Boyce.

11 DELEGATE BOYCE: I think the basic problem here,
12 Delegate Raley, is that the legislature even under our new 13 proposals of running for five months would not be in operation
14 for seven months. I think that everyone almost to a man
15 who has studied the problem recognizes that in the admini-
16 strative end of the executive branch it is very difficult
17 for the legislature to actually do the reorganizing and yet
18 at the same time all of us feel the importance of a check 19 by the legislature so this spells out that as opposed to the 20 Majority Report, this spells out that there is a second 21 after which permits the Governor to, within ten days of his
